

Tan Sri DR M JEGATHESAN, is a medical doctor with postgraduate qualifications in Pathology and Infectious Diseases currently working as a consultant clinical microbiologist in the private sector. He is also the Pro-Chancellor of the University Sains Malaysia .Previous to this He served the Ministry of Health for the main part of his career culminating in the post of Deputy Director General ( Research and Technical Support). Before that he was Director of its Institute for Medical Research. He has also served the World Health Organisation as consultant/temporary adviser in his areas of specialisation. He has also served as Medical Advisor to the UNDP associated Council for Health Research for Development ( COHRED) in Geneva. He had been an active researcher as well as research manager in his areas of expertise and has published more than 100 papers in peer reviewed journals

Parallel to this medical career he has been actively involved with the development of Sports Medicine and Doping control in this country. He is currently the Medical Adviser to the Commonwealth Games Federation and the Chairman of the Medical and Anti-Doping Commission of the Olympic Council of Asia. ,

He was an active athlete in his time, having been Asia Games sprint champion, in 1962 ( Jakarta) and 1966 Bangkok) and semifinalist in the Olympic Games in Tokyo 1964 and Mexico 1968.

Winner of two National Awards 30 years apart—the Sportsman of the Year Award in 1966 and the National Science Award in 1995 whilst his scientific contributions have earned him election as Academician ( Senior Fellow) of the Academy of Sciences of Malaysia.