

CV Balbir

C.V. Dr. Balbir Singh Gill

Dr. Balbir Singh Gill is a retired senior lecturer at the Sports centre, University of Malaya. He has served as a director of the sports centre , University of Malaya. In addition to that he has been entrusted with several key responsibilities in Malaysian sports He was the Chairman of the Advisory panel of the National Coaching Academy from 2011- 2015. He has also been an active hockey coach and was Chairman of the Coaching committee of the Malaysian Hockey Federation. Dr Balbir has been a practicing sports psychologist for the National Sports Council for 20 years and has been involved with psychological skills training for national and International athletes especially in high performance.

His expertise is focused on sport science, science of coaching and sport psychology. Dr balbir has written over 25 articles in local and international journals in relation to coaching and sport psychology.. At present he is the chairman of the coaching panel of Sarawak sports .and is actively involved in planning and preparing training programs for high performance athletes. In addition he is a consultant in sports science and sport psychology for a number of sport associations in Malaysia.