

DR. AL MUSLEH

SESSION: SYMPOSIUM 2 (DAY 1 1445 – 1510)

TOPIC: ORGANISATION OF SPORTS MEDICAL COVERAGE
DURING COVID-19

DEPUTY EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR FOR MEDICAL AFFAIRS

SUPREME COMMITTEE FOR DELIVERY & LEGACY

Dr. Abdul Wahab Al Musleh is a senior Advisor to HE the minister of public health for Sports and emergency affairs and the Deputy Executive Director, Medical Affairs, SCDL. He graduated from the Royal college of Surgeon in Ireland in 1988, obtained his FRCS and Arab board Certificate in Surgery in 1993, obtained master degree in Emergency and Disaster Management from Georgetown University in 2019. He chaired the Emergency department at Hamad Medical Corporation from 1997-2011. Currently he is an Associate Professor, Clinical Medicine at Weill Cornell Medical College in Qatar.

He is leading the Clinical Information Systems Program since April 2012. He is leading the preparedness of the Healthcare services for the FIFA World Cup 22 Qatar and all preceding test events at the Supreme Committee for Delivery and Legacy (SCDL)

He is an active member in many clinical and administrative committees throughout HMC and other organizations nationally. He is a standing member of the Medical and anti-doping committee of the Olympic council of Asia.

He was the creator and the director of the Hamad International Training Center (HITC).

Dr. Al Musleh, along with a number of his colleagues in the GCC region, started a four-year Arab Board Residency Training Program in Emergency Medicine in October 2000. He Chaired the Scientific Council of the Arab Board Emergency Medicine for 6 years.