

Associate Professor Mohamed Razif b. Mohamed Ali (Dr. Razif Ali)
MBBCh BAO, FRCS, MSc Sports Med, MSports Med& Rehab (Univ. Malaya).
Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon,
Arthroscopy Reconstructive Surgery and Sports Medicine Department
University Malaya, Kuala Lumpur

He is the Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon specializing in Arthroscopic Reconstructive Surgery and Sports Medicine in the University Malaya, Kuala Lumpur. He qualified from Royal College of Surgeons in Edinburgh for the FRCS. Qualified in Sports Medicine from University Malaya (1998) and the Trinity College, Dublin, Republic of Ireland (1996).

Initially he served as a Orthopaedic Specialist and Lecturer in Trauma and Fracture Orthopaedic Surgery in the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery, Faculty of Medicine, University Malaya (1992 to 2003). Later, he served as Head of the Sports Medicine Department, University Malaya and developed to its current expanded scale and administration (2003 to 2013). Presently, he is still serving as Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon running the Sports Surgery and Research Service with continued Consultative and Academic Service to the Sports Medicine Department, University Malaya.

He participated in the AOSSM Fellowship (American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine) with scientific paper presentations in USA in the year 2000. He participated in Shoulder Surgery in the St. George Hospital, part of the University of New South Wales (UNSW), Sydney, Australia in 2008-2009. He participated in research of Biomechanics of running and athletics in the Cardiff Metropolitan University, Wales, United Kingdom in 2014-2015. Special interests are Knee Orthopaedics & Biomechanics.