

Curriculum Vitae

Dr Alzamani Mohammad Idrose is currently a Consultant Emergency Physician from Hospital Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia and a council member for the College of Emergency Physicians. He graduated from University of Malaya with MBBS and completed his Master of Medicine(Emergency) from USM, Master in Information Technology Management(MITM) from Universiti Tun Abdul Razak and European Master in Disaster Medicine(EMDM) from University of Eastern, Piedmonte in Italy. He also completed a law degree - Bachelor of Jurisprudence (External Programme) from University of Malaya. Apart from being a clinician at his department, he is currently appointed as the Royal Physician for His Royal Highness the Agong of Malaysia. He has produced more than 200 scientific papers and published in local and international journals and had presented extensively in international conferences. He also contributed chapters on endocrine emergency in leading Emergency Medicine textbook. He was also the key person in producing standard operating procedures for hospital contingency plans as well as for the Ministry of Health. His area of interests are critical and emergency ultrasound, disaster medicine, high-altitude illnesses and medico-legal cases management.